REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Greenville Technical Charter High School (GTCHS) is one of the most unique public schools in our state. GTCHS was established in 1999 primarily as a result of the vision and courage of the President of Greenville Technical College, Dr. Thomas E. Barton, Jr. The establishment of GTCHS was supported by the sponsoring school district, the School District of Greenville County, to create a middle college/early college program on the main campus of Greenville Technical College (GTC). This innovative school concept was supported by the business community to provide students a seamless transition from high school to higher education and the world of work. The South Carolina Department of Education accredits GTCHS and SACS accredits Greenville

Technical College. With a faculty of 24.5, GTCHS offers an academically rigorous four-year program serving a student enrollment of 439 students in grades 9-12. The teaching/learning paradigm is based on Mastery Learning. Though GTCHS does not offer AP courses, students do have the opportunity to take dual credit classes at Greenville Technical College, many earning enough credits to enroll in college as sophomores. Ten students in the 2013 graduating class earned 13 associate degrees while in high school. Currently, 70% of the student body is enrolled in at least one college class. The school's ability to offer individualized academic plans and academic assistance further serves to create an opportunity for the success of each student. Teachers use state-of-the-art technology and Greenville Technical College resources to enhance instruction in all subject areas. Student-teacher ratios remain one of the lowest in the upstate at approximately 18-1. The school expects parental involvement at a minimum of one hour per week, 50 hours of community service for every student each year, project-based learning that is competency based, and the senior capstone project or internship prior to graduation. These expectations continue to make GTCHS a unique place for learning and character building. GTCHS has received an Excellent rating from the South Carolina Department of Education from 2002 to 2012 and received the Palmetto Gold Award for nine consecutive years. The school received recognition as a Carolina First Palmetto's Finest winner in 2009 and received recognition as an US Department of Education National Blue Ribbon School of Excellence in 2010. GTCHS is designated as one of the top fifteen charter schools in the nation by the US Department of Education, honored as a National Charter School of the Year by the Center for Education Reform and received the 2011 Bronze Award from US News & World Report as one of America's Best Public Schools as well as special recognition as the 4th most connected school in the nation. The success of GTCHS is obvious in its increased enrollment and its waiting list for admission. The school was awarded a Federal charter school dissemination grant to share best practices with other schools. Other technical colleges throughout the state are planning similar early college high school programs. GTCHS is a National Tech Prep Demonstration Site and continues to be recognized as a flagship school of choice in our state.
